

By the King.

A PROCLAMATION

For Pricing of WINES.

CHARLES R.

Whereas by the Statute made in the Eight and twentieth year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, for Pricing of Wines, It is provided, That the Lord Chancellor, Lord Treasurer, Lord President of the Kings most Honourable Council, Lord Privy Seal, and the Lords Chief Justices of either Bench, or Five, Four, or Three of them, shall have Power and Authority by their Discretion to set the Prices of all kinds of Wines, as in the said Statute is expressed; By virtue whereof, the Lord Chancellor, the Lord Treasurer, the Lord Privy Seal, the Lord Chief Justice Rainsford, and the Lord Chief Justice North, the Nineteenth day of December last, did Order, That Canary Wines be sold in Gross at Thirty six pounds the Pipe, and Twelve pence the Pint by Retail; That Tents and Malagaes be sold in Gross at Thirty pounds the Butt, and Ten pence the Pint by Retail; That Allecants, Sherries and Muscadels, be sold in Gross at Twenty seven pounds the Butt, and Nine pence the Pint by Retail; That French Wines be sold in Gross at Thirty six pounds the Tun, and Twelve pence the Quart by Retail; And that Rhenish Wines be sold in Gross at Nine pounds the Aulm, and Eighteen pence the Quart by Retail; And according to these Rates (and no higher) in proportion for greater or lesser quantities, either in Gross or by Retail; and that none presume to sell at higher Prices during the year next ensuing, to be accounted from the first day of February next. Now that all cause of excuse may be taken away, and that such as shall be found Delinquents therein, may acknowledge their own Wilfulness to be the cause of the danger and penalty they fall into after Advertisement, The Kings most Excellent Majesty, according to one other Statute in that behalf made in the Fourth year of the Reign of King Edward the Third, by this his Royal Proclamation doth Publish and Declare, That for One year next following, to be accounted as aforesaid, Canary Wines be not sold in Gross at above Thirty six pounds the Pipe, and Twelve pence the Pint by Retail; That Tents and Malagaes be not sold in Gross at above Thirty pounds the Butt, and Ten pence the Pint by Retail; That Alicants, Sherries, and Muscadels, be not sold in Gross at above Twenty seven pounds the Butt, and Nine pence the Pint by Retail; That French Wines be not sold in Gross at above Thirty six pounds the Tun, and Twelve pence the Quart by Retail; And that Rhenish Wines be not sold in Gross at above Nine pounds the Aulm, and Eighteen pence the Quart by Retail; And according to these Rates (and no higher) in proportion for greater or lesser quantities, either in Gross or Retail. Which Rates and Prices his Majesties Pleasure is, shall be duely observed in all his Ports, and other Places within this Realm where Wines are Landed, or within Ten Miles of those Ports and Places. And it is his Majesties Pleasure, That in those Places where Wines by Land-carriage shall be conveyed more then Ten Miles from the next Port, the several sorts of Wines aforesaid, shall and may be sold according to the Rates aforesaid, with an allowance not exceeding four pounds the Tun, and One penny the Quart for the Carriage thereof every Thirty Miles, and according to that proportion, and not at greater Rates; Strictly Charging and Commanding such of his Subjects, and others whom it may concern, That none of them, during the time aforesaid, presume to sell any of the said Wines in Gross or by Retail, at higher Rates then by this his Majesties Proclamation are appointed, under the forfeitures and Penalties mentioned in the said Statute, and other the Laws and Statutes of this Realm Ordained in that behalf; And such other Pains, and Penalties, as by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm can or may be Inflicted upon Wilful Contemners of his Majesties Royal Command and Proclamation; Requiring and Commanding all Mayors, Sheriffs, Justices of the Peace, Customers, Comptrollers, and other Officers of his Majesties Ports, and all others whom it shall concern, diligently to observe and attend the Execution of this his Royal Pleasure, and to give Information to the Lords and others of the Privy Council, of the Delinquents, that they may be proceeded against, and receive Punishment according to their Demerits.
